XXVIII. And he it further enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act there shall be issued, and paid and payable during his good Behaviour, to the said Chief Remembrancer of the said Court for the Time being, out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, after paying and reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of such Consolidated Fund, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may be hereafter charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, the annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds Irish Currency; (a) every such annual Sum to be issued in pursuance of this Act shall from time to time thereunto be payable and paid Quarterly, free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on every Twenty fifth Day of March, Twenty fourth Day of June, Twenty sixth Day of September and Twenty fifth Day of December, the First Payment thereof to be made on the First of the said Quarterly Days which shall immediately next follow the Commencement of this Act, and in Proportion only to the Time which shall have then elapsed from the Commencement of this Act. [a] [See Section 27. ante.]

XXIX. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That whenever any Person holding or who shall hold the Office of Chief Remembrancer in Ireland shall, during the Course of any Quarter, resign or quit his said Office, or shall die, then the Person so resigning or quitting, or the Executors or Administrators of such Person so dying (as the Case may be) shall be entitled to such proportionate Part of such Salary as shall have accrued during such Part of the said Quarter as such Person shall have exercised the said Office; and every Chief Remembrancer to be hereafter appointed shall, on the Quarter Day next after his Appointment, be entitled to have and receive out of the said Consolidated Fund such Proportion of such Salary as shall have arisen from the Date of the Letters Patent of his Appointment.

XXX. And he it further enacted, That in all References or Matters before the said Chief Remembrancer, in which it has been heretofore customary to issue Summons for the Parties to attend, the said Chief Remembrancer shall continue to issue Summons from time to time, and shall not in any Case, or under any Pretence whatever proceed on any such Reference or Matter, unless a Summons for the Meeting at which such Proceeding shall be required shall have been signed by him, and shall be produced before him at the Meeting for proceeding on such Reference or Matter.

XXXI. And Whereas Delays and Adjournments of Meetings on References and Proceedings in the said Office of Chief Remembrancer frequently take place for the Accommodation and Convenience, or through the Negligence and Nonattendance of one of the Parties concerned in such Reference or Proceeding; and it is unreasonable and unjust that the Party attending and prepared to proceed should pay the Expence of Meetings so rendered Negatory by the Nonattendance of the opposite Party, even though the Party so attending should, by a final Decree or otherwise, be ordered to pay the several Costs of the Cause; Be it therefore enacted, That at any and every Meeting which shall be had before the said Chief Remembrancer upon any Summons issued in Manner aforesaid, he shall on the Back of the Summons for such Meeting, to be produced to him according to the Directions of this Act, indorse or cause to be indorsed, and shall sign such Order, as under the Circumstances of the Case shall to him seem fit, as to the Payment of the Costs of such Meeting, and as to the Person or Persons by whom the Costs of such Meeting shall be paid, as between Party or Party, or whether such Costs shall abide the Rule, Order or Decree, as to the Payment of Costs, which may be made on the Hearing of the Cause, or whether such Costs shall be paid by the Complainant or Defendant, or other Party in the Cause or Matter, independent of any General Order or Decree which may be pronounced by the Court as to the general Costs of such Cause or Matter, or whether, or between Solicitor and Client, the Costs of such Meeting in the said Office, so as aforesaid rendered negatory, shall constitute a fair and reasonable Charge against the Client; and every such Summons, with such Order so thereon indorsed, and signed by the said Chief Remembrancer, shall, to the Taxation of such Costs, be produced to the Taxing Officer when taxing such Costs, who shall allow or disallow the Costs in respect thereof accordingly, either as between Party and Party, or as between Solicitor and Client, or otherwise, according to the Order so as aforesaid indorsed on the Back of such Summons; and in no Case shall the Officer, upon the Taxation of any Bill of Costs, allow any Sum or Sums as and for the Expences of any such Meeting or Proceeding, unless the Summons on which Meeting was had be produced before such Officer at the Time of such Taxation.

XXXII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prevent the said Chief Remembrancer, or any other Officer at the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer, from taking or receiving or recovering all such Fees as shall be legally and lawfully due to any such Officer, for any Summons done or for any Services performed in the Execution of the Duty of his Office at any Time previous to the First Day of August next.

XXXIII. And Whereas there are at present Four Examiners at the Equity Side of the said Court of Exchequer; Be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act there shall be but Two Chief Examiners at the Equity Side of the said Court, who shall perform the several Duties mentioned and specified for them in the Tables in that behalf hereto annexed; and that the said Two Examiners shall be appointed by the Chief Baron of the said Court by Deed, to be by him duly executed and enrolled in the said Court.

XXXIV. And he it further enacted, That the Two First Examiners to be appointed under the Provisions of the Act shall be appointed from among the Four present Examiners of the said Court.

And Whereas several Absences and Inconveniences to the Suitors had arisen from the Practice of the said Court relative to the Examination of Witnesses under Commissions issuing out of the said Court to Counties for that Purpose, and it is expedient that all such Absences and Inconveniences should be corrected and a better System introduced: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, in all Cases where it may be necessary that an Examination of Witnesses should take place, either in chief in any Cause, or in aid of any Enquiry or Account ordered or directed to be made or taken before the Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, other than the Examination of Witnesses before the Examinations of the said Court, an Order shall be made by the said Court for referring it to the said Chief Remembrancer of the said Court, according to the usual Practice of the said Court in such Cases, to approve of and appoint one fit and proper Person to act as Examiner in all such Cases so referred, and such Person so to be approved of and appointed by such Chief Remembrancer shall, so far as the same is practicable, be totally unconnected with either or any of the Parties interested in such Cases; and such Person so approved of and appointed shall be, and shall be taken as, and shall be considered to be an Officer of the said Court of Exchequer, and shall be subject to such summary Interference and Control of the said Court as any other Officer of the said Court in this Act particularly mentioned; and a Commission shall issue to such Person so as aforesaid appointed, authorizing and empowering him to proceed in the Examination of all such Witnesses as may be necessary, in the same Manner and according to the same Forms as are at present established (save and except in Cases where such established Practice is altered by this Act) touching and concerning the Examination of Witnesses under Commissions to examine Witnesses issuing out of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland at any Time before the Commencement of this Act; and every Person so approved of and appointed a Commissioner to examine Witnesses under the Provisions of this Act, before he shall exercise any of the Duties of such Commissioner, shall take and subscribe, before the Chief or other Baron of the said Court, or other Person duly authorized to administer the same, the following Oath; and such Oath shall be annexed to the said Commission, and shall be returned with the said Commission to the said Court, to be there filed and recorded; (that is to say,)

I, A. B. do swear, That I will, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, truly and faithfully perform the Duty of a Commissioner to examine Witnesses pursuant to the Powers vested in me by the aforesaid Commission; and that I will truly, faithfully and without Partiality in or to either of the Parties in this Cause, take and write down the Examinations and Depositions of all and every Witness and Witnesses who shall be produced before and examined by me upon the Interrogatories filed for that Purpose; and that until Publication in the said Cause shall duly pass, I will not publish, disclose or make known any Part of the Purport or Contents of any Deposition of any Witness to be taken by me, and further, that I will fairly and truly come and sit down in Writing, in the Banister of each Examination, the Hours of the Day, on each Day that I shall be employed as such Commissioner, at which I shall respectively commence and conclude the Examination of the Witnesses under such Commissions, as also the real and true Cause or Causes of my not commencing such Examination at or before Three o'Clock in the Forenoon if such should be the Case, and also of my not continuing such Examination till Three o'Clock in the Afternoon if such should be the Case, as also by whose Delay or Default, so far as I can judge, such Examination was not commenced and continued (for the Case may be) from Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon till Three in the Afternoon. XLIV. And be it enacted, That no such Examiner shall in any Case appoint a Deputy, unless and until the Occasion for such Appointment, and also the Person to be appointed, shall have been approved of by the Court, upon a Petition verified by Affidavit; and that nothing shall be considered by the Court as a fit Occasion for such Appointment, but inability in the Principal to attend, either from Sickness or from unavoidable Business; and such Order shall be regularly entered in the Registrar's Office; and so such Appointment shall continue for any longer Time than shall be allowed or directed by such Order, either by fixing a precise Time, or by some general Words, or by Reference to some Matter capable of being distinctly ascertained, or in such other Manner as the Court shall think proper; and if any such Appointment shall be made otherwise than as aforesaid, or for any longer Period than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case such Chief Examiner making such Appointment, and also such Deputy, if he shall presume to Act therein, shall be deemed guilty of a Contempt of the Court, and be punished accordingly.

C A P. LXXV.

An Act for enabling His Majesty to inclose Part of Kew Green, and for dividing and extinguishing Rights of Common over certain Lands in the Parish of Kew, in the County of Surrey.

[11th July 1823.]

WHEREAS His Majesty is seized in Right of His Crown of the Manor of Staines, otherwise West Staines, otherwise Richmond, in the County of Surrey: And Whereas the West End of the Common called Kew Green, Part of the Waste of the said Manor, divides a Messuage and Grounds belonging to His Majesty on the North Side thereof, from other Grounds belonging to His Majesty on the South and West Sides thereof: And Whereas the Inclosure and Addition of so much of the said Waste as divides the said Grounds, and of the Road from the said Common to the Ferry called Brentford Ferry, would be a great Improvement to the said Property of His Majesty: And Whereas His Majesty hath been graciously pleased to signify His Royal Intention of causing to be made (in lieu of the said Road to the Ferry) a Road from Kew Bridge Westward along the Side of the Footpath in Front of the Houses on the North Side of the said Common called Kew Green, and thence Northward, a Footpath and Road to the Towing Path of the River Thames, and thence Westward a raised Footpath and Road to Brentford Ferry; and also of causing to be made a Footpath along the Eastern End of the remaining Part of Kew Green aforesaid; and of causing the present Roads along the remaining Sides of Kew Green to be put in good State and Condition, and also of creating the said Roads and Footpaths, and all other the Highways and Footpaths in the said Parish of Kew, to be for ever hereinafter kept in good Repair: And Whereas His Majesty and William Selwyn Esquire, and other Persons, are Owners of certain Meadow Lands in the said Parish of Kew, adjoining the Towing Path of the River Thames, and containing Nineteen Acres Three Rods and Fourteen Perches, or thereabouts: And Whereas John Mansfield Esquire, and other Persons, are Occupiers of Estates in the said Parish of Kew, and respectively are or claim to be entitled to Rights of Common of Pasture over the said Meadow Lands during Half of every Year: And Whereas an Act was passed in the Forty first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, intituled An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions usually carried in Acts of Inclosure, and for facilitating the Means of proving the several Facts usually required on the passing of such Acts: And Whereas an Act was passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws respecting the enclosing of Open Fields, Pastures, Meads and Waste Lands in England: And Whereas the said Meadow Lands are in their present State incapable of any considerable Improvement, and it would be advantageous to the several Persons interested therein if the same were divided, and specific Shares allotted to the several Proprietors thereof, and if the Persons entitled to Rights of Common during Half the Year over the same were in lieu thereof to have the same Rights of Common at all Times of the Year over a Part thereof: But inasmuch as the several Proprietors aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and immediately after the said Roads and Footpaths, in lieu of the said present Road to Brentford Ferry, shall be made as hereinafter is mentioned, His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall and may, at His and Their own Costs and Charges, inclose and divide and enclose, fence and discharge of and from all Common Rights of what Nature or Kind soever, all that Piece or Parcel of Land, Part of the said Waste or Common called Kew Green, and the Road from thence to His Majesty's Palace and Brentford Ferry, and the Waste Ground adjoining thereto, bounded on the East End thereof by a straight Line drawn from the North East Corner of the Messuage belonging to His Majesty, lately in the Occupation of Barbara Meyer Widow, to the Entrance into the Royal Gardens on the opposite Side of the said Common, as the same hath been marked by a Stone Dwarf Wall, with an Iron Railing, lately erected by His Majesty; on the North Side thereof by Messuages and

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act to authorize His Majesty, under certain Circumstances, to regulate the Duties and Drawbacks on Goods imported or exported in Foreign Vessels; and to exempt certain Foreign Vessels from Pilotage. [18th July 1823.]

WHEREAS it is the Practice in many Cases, as well in Foreign Countries as in the United Kingdom, to charge higher Duties, and to grant smaller Drawbacks, Bounties and Allowances, upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise, when imported or exported in Ships or Vessels not belonging to the Country in which such Duties are charged, or Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances are granted, than are charged or granted when imported or exported in Ships or Vessels belonging to such Country; And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to alter the Importation or Exportation of any Goods, Wares and Merchandise, in Foreign Vessels, upon Payment of the like Duties, and with the like Drawbacks, Bounties and Allowances, as are now by Law paid or granted upon similar Goods, Wares and Merchandise, when imported or exported in British Vessels from or to those Countries in which no other Duties are charged, or other Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances are granted, upon the Importation or Exportation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise into or from such Country in British Vessels, than are charged or granted upon such Goods when imported into or exported from such Countries in Foreign Vessels; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorize the Importation into or Exportation from the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's Dominions, of any Goods, Wares or Merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in Foreign Vessels, upon Payment of such and the like Duties only, and with the like Drawbacks, Bounties and Allowances, as are charged or granted upon similar Goods, Wares or Merchandise, when imported or exported in British Vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be made, satisfactory Proof shall have been had before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into or exported from the Foreign Country, to whose favour such Privileges of Duties, or such Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances, shall be granted, are charged with the same Duties, and are allowed the same Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances, when imported into or exported from such Foreign Country in British Vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar Goods, Wares and Merchandise, when imported or exported in Vessels of such Country.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, whenever it shall be deemed expedient, to levy and charge any additional Duty or Duties of Customs, or to withhold the Payment of any Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances, upon any Goods, Wares or Merchandise, imported into or exported from the United Kingdom, or imported into or exported from any of His Majesty's Dominions, or Vessels belonging to any Foreign Country, in which higher Duties shall have been levied, or smaller Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances granted upon Goods, Wares or Merchandise, when imported into or exported from such Foreign Country in British Vessels, than are levied or granted upon similar Goods, Wares and Merchandise, when imported or exported in Vessels of such Country; provided always, that such additional or countervailing Duties so to be imposed, and Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances so to be withheld as aforesaid, shall not be of greater Amount than may be deemed fitted to counteract the Difference of Duty, Drawback, Bounty or Allowance paid or granted on Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported into or exported from such Foreign Country in British Vessels, more or less than the Duties, Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances there charged or granted upon similar Goods, Wares or Merchandise imported into or exported from such Foreign Country in Vessels of such Country.

III. And be it further enacted, That such additional or countervailing Duties of Customs shall be levied, assessed and applied, in such and the like Manner as any other Duties of Customs are now by Law levied, recovered or applied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council as aforesaid, is hereby empowered to remove, or again to impose, any such additional or countervailing Duty of Customs, or to remove or withhold such Drawbacks, Bounties or Allowances, whenever it shall be deemed expedient so to do.

V. And Whereas it might tend to the Advantage of British Vessels arriving in Foreign Ports, if Power was given to His Majesty to exempt Foreign Vessels of less Burthen than Sixty Tons from the Obligation of taking an issued Pilot to conduct them into or from the Ports of the United Kingdom, in all Cases in which British Vessels of less Burthen than Sixty Tons are not required by Law to take Pilot; Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by any Order or Orders in Council, in all such Cases as aforesaid, to exempt Foreign Vessels, being of less Burthen than Sixty Tons, from taking on board a Pilot to conduct them into or from any of the Ports of the United Kingdom; any Law, Customs or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may, by Order in Council, authorize the Importation and Exportation of Goods in Foreign Vessels, on the condition of such Duties, or of such Drawbacks, Bounties and Proof of Charge thereof.

Additional Duties may be levied on Goods imported in Vessels belonging to Countries where higher Duties are imposed on Goods imported in British Vessels, than when imported in Vessels of the Country.

Duties to be levied on similar Duties.

Such Duties may be removed, or again imposed.

XXI. And Whereas Lascars and other Natives of the East are not deemed to be equal in Strength and Use to Europeans or other Seamen, and the requiring the Proportion of Three fourths of British Seamen in Ships having as Part of the Crew Lascars and Natives of the East, would compel such Ships to carry a larger Number of British Seamen than other Ships, or to employ a smaller Number of Lascars and Natives of the East than would be sufficient to make a proper Crew; Be it therefore enacted, That any Ship or Vessel duly registered, manned in Part with Lascars or Natives of India, which shall be commanded by a British Master, and navigated by Four British Seamen, as Part of the Crew, for every Hundred Tons of her registered Burthen, and so in proportion for any Part of a Hundred Tons, shall be deemed, construed and taken to be navigated according to Law as in the Crew of any such Ship or Vessel, although the Number of such British Seamen shall not be equal to the Proportion of Three fourths of the whole Crew of such Ship or Vessel; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. And Whereas it may not always be possible to procure the due Proportion of British Seamen on Ports in India for Vessels sailing from India; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of the Governments of the East India Company's India, or for any Governor or Lieutenant Governor of any Colony, Territory or Island belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the said Charter, and they and he are hereby required, on Application made by the Owner or Commander of any Ship or Vessel, and after having ascertained by due Inquiry that a sufficient Number of British Seamen cannot be procured for the Crew of any Ship or Vessel sailing from India, within Ten Days from such Application, to certify the same, and licence such Ship or Vessel to sail and carry on her Voyage with a less Proportion of British Seamen than required by Law; and every such Ship, having on board such Licence, and the Proportion of British Seamen therein specified, shall be deemed to be navigated according to Law, notwithstanding such Deficiency of British Seamen.

XXIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to require any Number of British Seamen to be on board as Part of the Crew or Manpower of any Ship or Vessel employed in Trade only between Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, including the Cape of Good Hope.

[See Sect. 17. post.]

III. Costs.

Plaintiff in Civil Action may file a Commencement.

Where Troops are serving beyond the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Requests, Actions of Debt not to exceed 500 Three Pounds shall be cognizable before a Military Court.

LIII. And he is further enacted, That every Soldier entitled to his Discharge under any Orders or any Regulations made by the said Company, or upon the Expiration of any Period for which he shall have engaged to serve, shall be sent to Great Britain or Ireland free of Expence, and be entitled on his Return to have and receive Marching Money from the Place of his being landed to the Parish or Place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, at the Rate and Reckoning per Diem fixed for outmarching Soldiers in His Majesty's Service on the March.

LIII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That every such Soldier entitled to and claiming his Discharge, and to be sent to Great Britain or Ireland, shall, until he Arrive and Detachments in Great Britain or Ireland, be subject to the Provision of this Act, and the Articles of War framed or to be framed by His Majesty for the better Government of the Company's Forces.

LIV. And he is further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Deserter from any Regiment or Corps of the said Company's Forces, or who upon being apprehended for Desertion or any other Offence shall, in the Presence of the Magistrate or of the Commanding Officer of the Place, confess himself to be a Deserter from any such Regiment or Corps, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, and to be a Soldier, and shall be liable to serve in any such Regiment or Battalion or Corps of the said Company's Forces, as the Commander of the Forces of the said Company shall think fit to appoint, whether such Person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a Soldier or not.

LV. And to prevent, as far as may be, any unjust or fraudulent Arrests that may be made upon Soldiers, whereby the said United Company may be deprived of their Services; it is hereby further enacted, That no Person who is or shall be listed, or who shall list and enter himself in the Company's Service as a Soldier, shall be liable to be taken out of the Company's Service, by any Process or Execution whatsoever, other than for some Criminal Matter, unless for a real Debt or other just Cause of Action, and unless before the taking out of such Process or Execution (not being for a Criminal Matter) the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs thereof, or some other Person or Persons on his or their Behalf, shall make Affidavit before One or more Judge or Judges of the Court of Record, or other Court out of which such Process or Execution shall issue, or before some Person authorized to take Affidavits in such Courts, that to his or their Knowledge the original Sum justly due and owing to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs from the Defendant or Defendants, in the Action or Cause of Action on which such Process shall issue, or the original Debt for which such Execution shall be used out, amounts to the Value of Two hundred Sixty Shillings at the least, over and above all Costs of Suit in the same Action, or in any other Action on which the same shall be granted; a Memorandum of which Debt shall be marked on the Back of such Process or Writ, for which Memorandum or Oath no Fee shall be taken, and if any Person shall notwithstanding be arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for One or more Judge or Judges of such Court, upon Complaint thereof made by the Party himself, or by any of his superior Officers, to examine into the same by the Oath of the Parties or otherwise, and by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to discharge such Soldier so arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, without paying any Fee or Poin, upon due Proof made before him or them that such Soldier so arrested was legally enlisted as a Soldier in the Company's Service, and arrested contrary to the Intent of this Act, and also to award to the Party so complaining such Costs as such Judge or Judges shall think reasonable, for the Recovery whereof he shall have the Due Records that the Person who takes out the said Execution might have had for his Costs, or the Plaintiff in the like Action might have had for the Recovery of his Costs, in case Judgment had been given for him with Costs against the Defendant in the said Action.

LVI. And to the End that honest Creditors, who are only in the Recovery of their just Debts due to them from Persons entering into and enlisting in the Company's Service, may not be hindered from suing for the same, but on the contrary may be assisted and forwarded in their Suits, and instead of an Arrest, which may at such time the Service and occasion great Expence and Delay, in themselves, may be enabled to proceed in a more easy and cheap Method; It is further enacted, That it may and shall be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, upon Notice first given in Writing of the Cause of Action to such Person or Persons as appeared, or left at his or their last Place of Residence before such Laying, or to a Consensu Appraiser in any Action to be brought for or upon account of any Debt whatsoever, so as to enable such Plaintiff to recover therein to Judgment and Outlawry, and to have an Execution thereupon other than against the Body or Bodies of him or them so listed as aforesaid: this Act, or any thing therein, or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

LVII. And he is further enacted, That in all Places where the said Company's Forces now are or may be employed, or where any Body of His Majesty's Forces may be serving with the Forces of the said Company, situate beyond the Jurisdiction of the Court of Requests established at the Cities of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay respectively, Actions of Debt and all personal Actions against such Officers, Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers, all Persons licensed to act as Soldiers to any Corps or Detachment, or at any Station or Cantonment, or other Persons accountable to the President of this Act, or resident within the Limits of a Military Cantonment, shall be cognizable before a Court of Requests composed of Military Officers, and not elsewhere; provided the Value in question shall not exceed Four hundred Sixty Pounds, and that the Defendant was a Person of the above Description when the Cause of Action arose; which Court the Commanding Officer of any Station or Cantonment is hereby authorized and empowered to constitute, and the said Court shall in all practicable Cases consist of Five Commissioned Officers, and in no Instance of less than Three, and the President thereof shall not be under the Rank of a Captain, and every Member assisting at any such Court, before any Proceedings to be had before it, shall take

I swear, That I will duly administer Justice, according to the Evidence, in the Matter that shall be brought before me.
So help me GOD.

And every Witness before any such Court shall be examined on Oath, which such Courts are hereby authorized to administer, or if Native of the East Indies, on Oath or solemn Declaration, as the Commanders of the Camp may require; and it shall be competent for such Courts, upon finding any Debt or Damage due, either to some European thereof generally, or to direct that the Whole or any Part thereof shall be stopped and paid over to the Creditor out of any Pay or public Money which may be coming to the Debtor in the current or any future Month; and in case the Execution shall be awarded generally, the Debt, if not paid forthwith, shall be levied by Seizure and public Sale of such of the Debtor's Goods as may be found within the Camp, Garrison or Cantonment, under a written Order of the Commanding Officers, grounded on the Judgment of the Court, and the Goods of the Debtor, if found within the Limits of the Company's Garrison or Cantonment to which the Debtor shall belong at any subsequent Time, shall be liable to be seized and sold in Satisfaction of any Remainder of such Debt or Damages; and if sufficient Goods shall not be found within the Limits of the Camp, Garrison or Cantonment, then any public Money, or any Sum not exceeding the Half Pay accruing to the Debtor, shall be stopped in Liquidation of such Debt or Damages; and if such Debtor shall not receive Pay as an Officer or Soldier, or from any public Department, but be a Soldier, Servant or Follower, he shall be arrested by His Order of the Commanding Officer, and imprisoned in some convenient Place within the Military Boundaries, for the Space of Two Months, unless the Debt be sooner paid: Provided always, that from and after the Time limited for the Commencement of this Act, so much of an Act passed in the fifty third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for continuing in the East India Company for a further Term the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with certain exclusive Privileges, for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories and the better Administration of Justice within the same, and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter, as given to Negatives the Obligations of Debts due from Officers or Soldiers, being British Subjects, in the Nation of India resident without the Jurisdiction of the Courts of Requests therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

[18th July 1823.]

WHEREAS it has been found that the Law, as it now stands, relating to Goods shipped in the Names of Persons who are not the actual Proprietors thereof, and to the Deposit or Pledge of Goods, affords great Facility to Fraud, produces frequent Litigation, and proves, in its Effects, highly injurious to the Interests of Commerce in general; Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, any Person or Persons intrusted, for the Purpose of Sale, with any Goods, Wares or Merchandises, and by whom such Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be shipped, in his, her or their own Name or Names, or in whose Name or Names any Goods, Wares or Merchandises shall be shipped by any other Person or Persons, shall be deemed and taken to be the true Owner or Owners thereof, so far as to entitle the Consignee or Consignees of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise to a Lien thereon, in respect of any Money or negotiable Security or Securities advanced or given by such Consignee or Consignees to or for the Use of the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names such Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be shipped, or in respect of any Money or negotiable Security or Securities received by him, her or them to the Use of such Consignee or Consignees, in the like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Person or Persons was or were the true Owner or Owners of such Goods, Wares and Merchandises: provided such Consignee or Consignees shall not have Notice, by the Bill of Lading for the Delivery of such Goods, Wares or Merchandise, or otherwise, at or before the Time of any Advance of such Money or negotiable Security, or of such Receipt of Money or negotiable Security, in respect of which such Lien is claimed, that such Person or Persons so shipping in his, her or their own Name or Names, or in whose Name or Names any Goods, Wares or Merchandise shall be shipped by any Person or Persons, is or are not the actual and bona fide Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Goods, Wares and Merchandise so shipped as aforesaid, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: Provided also, that the Person or Persons in whose Name or Names any such Goods, Wares or Merchandise are so shipped as aforesaid, shall be taken for the Purpose of this Act to have been intrusted therewith, unless the contrary thereof shall appear or be shown in Evidence by any Person disavowing such Fact.

Persons in whose Names Goods shall be shipped, shall be deemed the Owners, so as to entitle Consignees to a Lien thereon, as hereto mentioned.

28 C. 2.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of Ecclesiastical Courts in Ireland, and for the more easy Recovery of Church Rates and Tithes, it is amongst other Things enacted, that if any one duly rated to a Church Rate or Parish Cess, the Validity whereof has not been questioned in any Ecclesiastical Court, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same then or at which he is so rated, it shall be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace of the County, County of a City or Town Corporate, where the Church is situated in respect whereof such Rate or Parish Cess shall have been made, upon Complaint of any Churchwarden or Churchwardens who ought to receive and collect the same, to examine into the Matter of such Complaint, and to make Order for Payment of what is due and payable in respect of such Rate or Com. and to levy the same in such Manner as in the said recited Act is restricted and directed: and it is by the said Act provided, that if the Validity of such Rate or Com. or the Liability of the Person from whom it is demanded to pay the same, be disputed, and the Party disputing give Notice thereof to the Justice, the Justice shall before giving Judgment thereupon: And Whereas the said Proviso has been found in a great Measure to defeat the Intent and Purpose of the said recited Act, so far as relates to such Church Rates or Coms: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said heretofore recited Proviso in the said recited Act shall be and with the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That if the Validity of any such Church Rate or Com. as aforesaid be disputed in any Ecclesiastical Court, before any such Complaint as aforesaid, for the Recovery of such Rate or Com. shall have been made to any Justice or Justices, and such Justice or Justices shall have received Notice in Writing of the Proceedings in such Ecclesiastical Court, together with a true Copy of such Proceedings, or of any Sentence in such Ecclesiastical Court, before such Justice or Justices shall have made and published any Order for Payment of what shall appear to be due and payable in respect of such Rate or Com. and which Order so shall not be lawful for any such Justice or Justices to make and publish until after the End and Expiration of Eight Days next after Notice of such Complaint given to the Person or Persons complained against, unless with the Consent of such Person or Persons, or if at any Time before such Order shall be made, it shall be insisted on and signified in Writing, signed by or on behalf of the Person or Persons complained against, that such Person or Persons at the Time or Times of appointing such Rate or Com. was or were not Owners or Quakers, or Occupiers or Occupancies of the House or Houses, or Lands or Tenements, in respect whereof such Person or Persons is or are or shall be sought to be charged with such Rate or Com. or that such House or Houses, Lands or Tenements, is or are not situate within the Parish or Union, or alleged Parish or Union, to which such Complaint shall relate, and the Truth of any such written Plea or Defence shall be verified by Affidavit made and sworn before any Justice of the Peace, and delivered to the Justice or Justices before whom such Complaint shall have been or shall be made, together with such Matter, Plea or Defence, then and in every such Case such Justice or Justices shall likewise give Judgment on any such Complaint: Provided always that nothing herein, or in the said recited Act contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to alter or interfere with the Jurisdiction of Ecclesiastical Courts, touching any Church Rate or Parish Com. or any Proceedings to enforce the same.

III. And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Great-Britain in the Third Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better keeping Churches in Repair, it is amongst other Things enacted, that all and every Parish Com. or Tax that shall be made, raised or agreed upon at any Vestry held for any Parish for the Repair of the Parish Church or Chapel, or other necessary Charges belonging to such Church or Chapel, shall be appointed upon the respective Inhabitants of such Parish, in Manner as the said Act mentioned, which Appointments when made shall be returned to the Minister of the Parish, who the First Sunday after he hath received the same shall, after Divine Service in the Morning, give public Notice thereof, as also of a Vestry to be held in Ten Days after such Notice, in order to have the said Appointments considered on: And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Great-Britain in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to facilitate the building and rebuilding of Churches and Chapels, it is enacted, that all Parishes and Unions may be taxed for the building and rebuilding of Churches and Chapels in like Manner as all Parishes are taxed for repairing Churches and Chapels: And Whereas in Cases where such Parochial Assessments have been made for rebuilding and building of Churches and Chapels, it has been often found impracticable to give such public Notice after Divine Service of the Appointments, and of a Vestry, as is required by the Provisions of the said recited Acts: Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where Notice is by Law required to be given on or after Divine Service, of a Vestry to be held for the levying on or raising or appointing or confirming the Appointments of any Rate, Assessment or Com. for or towards the repairing, building, or rebuilding of any Church or Chapel in any Parish or Union, and it shall happen that there is not any Church or Chapel within such Parish or Union, or any Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, the posting up of a Notice of such Vestry, by Direction of the Minister or Curate of such Parish or Union, on some conspicuous public Place in the Market Town nearest to the Site of or for the Church or Chapel in respect of the repairing, building or rebuilding whereof any such Assessment, Rate or Appointments shall be made, or proposed to be made, and following Three true Copies thereof to Three Householders of the said Parish or Union respectively, shall be deemed sufficient Notice of every such Vestry: any thing in the said recited Acts or either of these contained to the contrary is hereby notwithstanding.

IV. And Whereas by the said recited Act, made in the Parliament of Great-Britain in the Third Year of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the better keeping Churches in Repair, it is amongst other Things enacted, that wherever any Archdiocesan or Episcopal Union of contiguous Parishes, under any Archbishop or Curate, or in the said Act is mentioned, shall be made by any Archbishop or Bishop within his respective Diocese, the Inhabitants or Occupiers of Land within each and every of such united Parishes respectively shall be obliged to contribute towards the Repair of the Church or Chapel appointed or to be appointed for Public Worship within the said united Parishes, and to the providing all necessary Charges belonging to such Church or Chapel, as if each united Parishes were one entire Parish, Parish, and the Church so appointed were the Parish Church of the same; and by the said Act, after reciting that several Parishes are united by Charter granted by the Crown, in some of which there are but very few Protestants inhabiting, and in others none at all, and the Parish Churches thereof quite ruined or in very great Decay, it is enacted, that until such ruined or decayed Churches are rebuilt or repaired, the Parishesmen thereof shall be obliged to contribute to the keeping in Repair the Church to which such Parishes are united, and to the providing all necessary Charges belonging thereto, in like Manner and subject to such Regulations as are by the said Act appointed for the repairing of the Churches united by Archbishopric or Episcopal Union: And Whereas by certain Acts of Parliament made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in the Forty eighth and Forty ninth Years respectively of His late Majesty King George the Third, for making Provision for the building and rebuilding of Churches, Chapels and Glebe Houses in Ireland, the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, was authorized and empowered to grant by way of Loan, Sum of Money, Interest free, to be applied for the building and rebuilding of Churches and Chapels, to be repaid to them by certain Instalments, after the Rate of Six Pounds for and on every Hundred Pounds so lent and advanced, until the respective Loans shall be repaid and discharged, such Instalments to be annually assessed and appointed as therein mentioned: And Whereas various Loans have been accordingly made by the said Trustees and Commissioners for the building and rebuilding of Churches and Chapels, and further Loans are likely to be granted for the same Purposes, and also for the repairing of Churches and Chapels, in pursuance of the further Powers hereby granted; and it has happened and may hereafter happen, that Parishes having no Churches, or no Churches fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, have been and may be so united to Parishes having Churches or Chapels fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, for or in respect of the building or rebuilding or repairing whereof certain annual Instalments are and may by Law be payable to the said Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits, and it is just and proper that such of the Parishes of the said Union as have not any Church or Chapel, or any Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, should contribute to the Payment of the annual Instalments of the Loans granted and to be granted for the building and rebuilding and repairing of the Churches or Chapels of the Parishes to which they are or may be so united, whilst they continue so united: Be it therefore enacted, That the Parishesmen of any Parish or Parishes, in any such Union in which there shall not be any Church or Chapel, or any Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, shall from time to time, so long as there shall not be any Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service in such Parish, but no longer, contribute to the Payment of all annual Instalments payable to the said Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, which are or shall become due and payable on and in respect of any Loans for or towards building or rebuilding or repairing any Church appointed or to be appointed to be so advanced the Church of such Union, as if the said united Parishes were One entire Parish, and the Church so built or rebuilt or repaired were the Parish Church of the same.

V. And Whereas several Parishes in Ireland having no Churches or Chapels, or none fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, are not or cannot, as the Law now stands, be ecclesiastically or by Charter united with other Parishes, though contiguous and having Churches fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, and it is expedient and proper that the Inhabitants of such Parishes, not provided with Churches or Chapels fit for Divine Service, should have and enjoy the Use and Benefit of the Churches convenient to the Districts wherein they reside, and that in consideration of such Use and Enjoyment they should contribute to the Support and Maintenance of such Churches: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland, within their respective Dioceses, to order and direct, by any Instrument under their Archbishopric or Episcopal Seals, that the Inhabitants of any Parish or Parishes within their respective Dioceses, not having a Church or Chapel fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, or that the Inhabitants of any District or Portion of any such Parish shall and may use and resort to the Church of any adjoining Parish fit for Divine Service, in such Instrument mentioned; and that thereupon and from thenceforth, until the Inhabitants of the said Parish or Parishes, or Districts or Portions of Parishes, so provided with Churches or Chapels fit for Divine Service as aforesaid, shall build up or sufficiently repair their Parish Church or Chapel, or until the Archbishop or Bishop shall revoke such Order, which it shall be lawful for him or them to do at any Time by Writing under his or their Archbishopric or Episcopal Seal, such Inhabitants may lawfully use and resort to such Church of such adjoining Parish as shall be mentioned in such Instrument; and all the Inhabitants of all or any such Parishes, or Parish, or District or Portion of a Parish as aforesaid, shall contribute and shall be assessed and rated towards the Repairing of the Church of such adjoining Parish, and for the providing all necessary Charges belonging to the same, and towards the Payment of all annual Instalments thereunto to be due and payable to the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, so or of any Loan or Loans for or in respect of rebuilding or building or repairing any such Church of such adjoining Parish, and shall be bound and compellable so to do, as if the said Parish so having a Church fit for Divine Service, and the Parish or District, or Portion of the Parish, the Inhabitants whereof shall have been by such Instrument as aforesaid empowered to use and resort to the said last mentioned Churches, were One entire Parish.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Church of such adjoining Parish, so long as the Inhabitants of any other Parish or District, or Portion of a Parish, shall be permitted to use and resort to the same, shall, so far as respects the Publication of Banns of Marriages, and the Celebration of Marriages, and and the Performance and Administration of Divine Service and Sacraments, he and he deemed and taken to be the Church of such Parish or District, or Portion of a Parish: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed or taken to exempt or discharge the Incumbent of any such Parish or Portion of a Parish, or of from the Care of the Souls of the Inhabitants thereof; and that if the Parishes or Portion of such Parish or District, or Portion of a Parish, as by this Act or any of the said recited Acts made liable to such Contributions as hereinbefore mentioned, shall at any Time build up or sufficiently repair the Parish Church or Chapel of such Parish, then and from thenceforth such Parishes, or any of them, shall not be bound or compelled to contribute towards the repairing, building, rebuilding or providing necessary Charges belonging to or towards the Payment of any Instalment of any Loan for or in respect of any other Church or Chapel, excepting in respect of that of the particular Parish in which they immediately and properly belong.

VII. And be it further enacted, That so long and during such Time as all or any of the Inhabitants of the said Parishes respectively, not having Churches or Chapels fit for the Celebration of Divine Service, shall be liable and bound to contribute as aforesaid, and no longer, it shall and may be lawful for such Persons so bound to contribute, to vote at all Vestries to be held for or in respect of the Assessment or Apportionment of the Rates or Taxes respectively, to and in respect whereof such Contribution is to be made as aforesaid; and that so long as they shall be so bound to contribute, the Churchwardens and Churchwardens of that Parish, or in respect of the Church whereof such Contribution is to be made, shall be and be deemed and taken as the Churchwarden and Churchwardens of the Parish or District, or Portion of the Parish, the Inhabitants whereof shall be so bound to contribute as aforesaid, so far only as may respect the Assessments and Apportionments of any Rates or Taxes for all or any of the Purposes aforesaid, and the Collection thereof, and Proceedings for Recovery and Receipt thereof, and so farther.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever, by reason of the Dissolution of any Union or Union, real or temporary, or from or by reason of any of the Causes aforesaid, or any other lawful Cause, the Inhabitants of any Parish or District, or Portion of any Parish, shall cease to be liable and bound to contribute towards the Payment of any such Instalment or Instalments as aforesaid, payable on or of any Loan or Loans for the building or rebuilding or repairing, or necessary Charges of the Church of any adjoining Parish, as which they may be before bound to contribute as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall from time to time be the duty of the said Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, and they are hereby required, upon the Petition or Memorial of the Minister or Curate and Churchwardens of the Parish or Parishes ceasing liable to the Payment of any such annual Instalment or Instalments, to order and direct, that in and out of the annual Instalment or Instalments which would otherwise therewith by Law become due and payable, a smaller and reduced annual Instalment, or Rate or Rates, shall be thereafter paid and payable to the said Trustees and Commissioners, as the only annual Instalment or Instalments of such Loan or Loans, the same to be paid and payable, and to continue to be paid and payable until such Loan or Loans shall be fully and entirely paid off and discharged, and no longer; and from and after the making of any such Order respectively, the reduced annual Instalment or Instalments therein ordered to be paid, shall be and shall continue to be paid and payable yearly and every Year, until such Loan or Loans shall be fully and entirely paid off and discharged, although Sixteen Years or more may have elapsed since the granting or issuing of such Loan or Loans respectively.

IX. And Whereas great Neglect and Inconvenience have taken place in respect of the Collection and Payment to the Trustees and Commissioners of the First Fruits of Ecclesiastical Benefices in Ireland, of the several Rates or Instalments of Loans made by the said Trustees and Commissioners for the building and rebuilding of Churches or Chapels in Ireland, on the Faith of Parochial Assessments, and the Apportionment for the Repayment of such Loans, as well as the Assessments, have been rendered invalid from Want of Form therein, and alleged Irregularities in respect of the changing the Sites of Churches and Chapels: Be it therefore declared and enacted, That all Churches and Chapels already erected and consecrated, or in which Divine Service is and has been celebrated with the Consent of the Parsonages or Curates of such Churches and Chapels, and of the Archbishops and Bishops of the Dioceses respectively, are and have been and shall be and be deemed and taken to be the Churches and Chapels of the respective Parishes and Districts in which they are respectively situate, notwithstanding that the Consent of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, may not have been obtained to the changing the Sites of such Churches and Chapels, and although the same may have been erected and built before the Districts which should form the Curates or Parishes of such Churches and Chapels were described and ascertained.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Lands and Grounds which have been or shall be granted or conveyed or sold for the Sites of such Churches and Chapels, or the Churchyards belonging to the same, under the Provisions of any Act or Acts for that Purpose, or which shall have been or shall be granted or conveyed for the building of any School House, or for the Endowment or in Trust or for the Use of any Schoolmaster in Ireland, under the Provisions of an Act made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for enabling Trustees in Trust and for Life, and also Ecclesiastical Persons, to grant Land for the Purpose of erecting Schools in Ireland; shall become and be and remain absolutely vested in the Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, or whatsoever Lands or Grounds was or were or shall be conveyed for any of the Purposes aforesaid, free from all Demands or Claims of any Body Politic or Corporate, or Person or Persons whatsoever, and without being

The Dissolution of Unions of Parishes, Incumbents may be dissolved.

And be it further enacted, That no Assessment or Apportionment of any Sum or Instalment made as to be made by any Vestry, or by the Authority of the same, in order to the obtaining of any Loan, for or in respect of the building, rebuilding or repairing of any Church or Chapel, or for or towards the Re-payment thereof, shall be liable to be affected or impeached, by reason of any Informality in any such Assessment or Apportionment, or in any Act or Vestry.

And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and twenty three, it shall not in any Case be lawful for any Master or other Person taking or having the Charge or Command of any Trading or Carrying Ship or Vessel, not being wholly employed in the Conveyance of Passengers and not licensed to carry any Passengers pursuant to this Act, whether such Ship or Vessel shall be laden in Part or in the Whole with Goods and Merchandise, not being the Baggage of or belonging to any Passengers in such Ship or Vessel, or shall be employed in the Carriage or Conveyance of Cattle or Pigs, or shall be in Ballast, and which shall sail from any Port or Place in Great Britain to any Port or Place in Ireland, or from any Port or Place in Ireland to any Port or Place in Great Britain, to have or take on board a greater Number of Persons than Ten (exclusive of the ordinary Crew of such Ship or Vessel), of such Ship or Vessel shall be of the Burthen of One hundred Tons or under, nor a greater Number of Persons than Twenty (exclusive of the ordinary Crew), if such Ship or Vessel shall be of a Burthen greater than One hundred Tons and not exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons, and if more Persons shall be found or taken on board any such Ship or Vessel than in the Provisions hereen allowed, every such Master or other Person as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Pounds for every Person so taken on board beyond such Proportion.

V. And be it further enacted, That an Abstract of this Act shall be prepared and printed by and under the Direction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, and a printed Copy of such Abstract shall be hung up in the Customs House of every Port of the United Kingdom, and a printed Copy of such Abstract, and also a Copy of the Licence granted to the Captain or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and a Notice or Statement of the Number of Persons allowed to be carried and conveyed in such Vessel, shall be hung up and affixed in some conspicuous Place on the Deck and in the Cabin of every Ship or Vessel carrying Passengers under the Regulations of this Act, and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall cause the said Copies to be kept and renewed, so that the same may be at all Times accessible to every Person on board such Ship or Vessel, upon Pain that every such Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, in which such Abstract, Licence and Notice, or any of them, shall not be hung up or affixed, and shall not be renewed and remain as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to Ships or Vessels in the Service of His Majesty, or of His Majesty's Postmaster General, or of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, or of the East India Company, nor to any Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Two hundred Tons or upwards, nor to any Ship or Vessel employed in carrying Troops.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence against this Act shall and may be recovered at any Time within Three Calendar Months after the Commission of such Offence, in a summary Way, by the Order and Adjudication of any One Justice of the Peace for the County or Place in which the Port shall lie straits, from which any such Ship or Vessel shall depart, or at which any such Ship or Vessel shall arrive, on Complaint to such Justice for that Purpose exhibited; and such Penalty shall be levied, as well as the Costs of such Proceedings, or Satisfaction, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, or Person or Persons liable to pay the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to summon before him any Witness or Witnesses, and to examine such Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, of and concerning such Offences, and to hear and determine the same; and the Oremus (if any) of the Warrant so levied or recovered, after discharging the Penalty or Forfeiture for which such Warrant shall be issued, and the Costs and Expenses of recovering and levying the same, shall be returned upon Demand to the Owner or Owners of the Goods or Chattels so seized or distrained, and in case such Penalty or Forfeiture shall not be forthwith paid upon Conviction, then it shall be lawful for such Justice to order the Offender or Offenders so convicted to be detained and kept in safe Custody, until Security can be conveniently made to such Warrant of Distress, unless the Offender or Offenders shall give sufficient Security, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, for his or their Appearance before such Justice on each Day or Days as shall be appointed for the Return of such Warrant of Distress, each Day or Days not being more than Seven Days from the Time of taking any such Security, and which Security the said Justice is hereby empowered to take by way of Recognizance or otherwise; but if, upon the Return of such Warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient Distress can be had throughout, then it shall be lawful for such Justice, or any other Justice of the Peace for such County or Place as aforesaid, and he is hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to the Goal of such County or Place, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Term not exceeding Two Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture, and all reasonable Charges, shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and one Moiety of every such Penalty or Forfeiture, when so levied, shall be paid to the Person or Persons who shall sue or prosecute for the same, for his or her own Use and Benefit, and the other Moiety thereof to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Conviction in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Person to appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place, such Appellant (if there be sufficient Time after the Cause of such Complaint shall have arisen) first giving or causing to be given Ten Days' Notice at least in Writing of his or her Intention of bringing such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the Justice whose Conviction shall be so appealed against, and within Seven Days next after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before the said Justice or some other Justice of the Peace for the County or Place, with Two sufficient Sureties conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order of such Justice at Sessions thence, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Justice at each Quarter Sessions; and for Want of sufficient Time for giving such Notice previous to the Quarter Sessions next after the Cause of such Complaint shall have happened, then such Appeal, after such Notice and under such Recognizance, may be made at the Second General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for such County or Place; and the Justices at such First or Second Sessions, upon the Proof of such Notice having been given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Cause and Matter of such Appeal in a summary Way, and shall award such Costs as the Parties appealing or appealed against, as they or the said Justices shall think proper, and the Determination of such Justice at such Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes; and the said Justice at such Sessions may also, by their Warrant or Order, cause such Costs so awarded by Distress and Sale to be levied of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons who shall refuse or neglect to pay the same; and for Want of sufficient Distress may commit such Person or Persons to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the said County, there to remain for any Time not exceeding Two Calendar Months, or until Payment of such Costs.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no Proceedings against, nor any Conviction of any Offender or Offender against this Act, or by or before any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for Want of Form, nor be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and where any Distress shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers, on account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Warrant of Distress or other Proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the Party or Parties distraining be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers at all, as account of any Irregularity which shall be afterwards committed by the Party or Parties distraining, but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage (if any) in an Action on the Case, but no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity as aforesaid, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made by or on Behalf of the Party distraining before such Action commenced.

X. And be it further enacted, That any Action or Suit which shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act, shall be commenced within Three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the County, City or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and that the Defendants or Defendants in such Action or Suit to be brought may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence as any Treat to be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any County, City or Place other than as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be convicted, or shall discontinue his, her or their Action, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff, or if upon Demurrer Judgments shall be given against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Double Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

An Act to regulate the Linnen and Hempen Manufactures of Ireland.

[18th July 1823.]

WHEREAS the Linnen and Hempen Manufactures of Ireland have been, and continue to be, of considerable Importance to that Part of the United Kingdom: And Whereas the several Branches of Industry, connected with the said Manufactures, have been hitherto greatly promoted by the Distribution of various Kinds of Utensils applicable thereto: And Whereas it may be expedient that the Trustees of the said Linnen and Hempen Manufactures should be at liberty to apply a larger Portion of their Funds to this Purpose than they are at present authorized to do, as well for maintaining the said Manufactures in the Province of Ulster, as for extending the same, and every Branch of Industry connected therewith, throughout the Provinces of Leinster, Munster and Connaught: And Whereas by an Act passed in the Twenty first and Twenty second Years of the Reign of George the Third, intitled An Act for prohibiting the Use of Linn in Bleaching, regulating the Masters of Linnens, encouraging the Home Manufacture of Aiken for Bleachers' Use, and giving and rendering more convenient the Linn Mill in the City of Dublin, and other Purposes therein mentioned, it is enacted, that the said Trustees shall not grant in any One Year, from the First of January One thousand seven hundred and eighty two, for Wheels, Reels and Looms, more than the Sum of Three thousand Pounds, and that if any of the said Trustees shall sign any Grant or Order for a Grant to a greater Amount than Three thousand Pounds in any One Year, or shall after the Sum of Three thousand Pounds shall have been granted for that Purpose, sign any further or other Grant in the same Year, for Wheels, Reels or Looms, whereby there shall be a greater Charge than the Sum of Three thousand Pounds accounted in that Year for such Purposes, every such Grant shall be null and void, and no Receipt or Voucher for the same shall be allowed in their Accounts: nor shall any Part of the Money intrusted to them to promote the Linnen and Hempen Manufactures be applied to pay the same: And Whereas it is fit and proper that the said Trustees should have full Power and Authority to appropriate the Moneys annually granted to them by Parliament, in such Manner as shall appear to them most conducive to promote and encourage the said Manufactures, according to the Terms and the true Intent and Meaning in and with which such Moneys are annually granted; and it is therefore expedient to repeal the said recited Clause: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Clause, and every Part thereof, be and the same is hereby repealed, and rendered null and void; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of October next, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to grant any such Sum or Sums of Money as the said Trustees may think expedient, for procuring Wheels, Reels, Looms or other Utensils, to be employed and distributed in any Manner as shall appear to them best calculated to promote such Manufactures, and otherwise to dispose of their Funds in such Manner as they shall think proper, for the Encouragement of the said Manufactures.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for such Trustees in any Case to grant any Sum or Sums of Money, or Premium, in the Way of Bounty or Allowance, on any Fabric of the Linnen Manufacture which is or shall be entitled to any Bounty upon the Exportation thereof from any Part of the United Kingdom.

IV. And

As to Restriction of appropriating these said Moneys
for Utensils employed.

Trustees may grant any Sum
for Wheels,
Reels, Looms,
&c.

No Premium
on Articles consulted to Bounty
on Exportation.

IV. And Whereas the said Trustees have been from time to time empowered, by Acts of Parliament now in Force, to appoint sundry Officers and Servants, at certain Salaries and Allowances, towards enabling the said Trustees to execute with Energy and Effect the different Trusts committed to their Care: And Whereas some of the Offices held by the said Officers have been abolished by the said Trustees, and the Duties of other Offices have both increased, and are, as reported on by the Committee on the Linnen Trade of last Session in the Case of Coney Inspectors, inadequately and injudiciously remunerated; and further, and additional Offices have in some Cases become necessary by reason of the Increase of the said Manufacture: And Whereas Doubts have arisen, whether the Payment of such Persons, so employed by the said Trustees, is authorized under the Laws which regulate their Powers: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the First Day of October next, it shall and may be lawful to the said Trustees, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, subject however to the Conditions and Restrictions hereinafter mentioned, to appoint from time to time, and at all times, in any Mode or Manner they shall think fit, all such Officers and Servants, and Persons before described, as shall appear to the said Trustees to be necessary or expedient for the Purpose of carrying into effectual Execution the Trusts committed to the Charge of the said Trustees, with such Salaries and Allowances, or Increase of Salary, as to the said Trustees shall seem suitable, subject however to the Conditions and Restrictions hereinafter mentioned.

Trustees may appoint Officers and Servants, with Salaries, as they may think necessary

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Appointment or Appointments of any such Officer or Officers, Servant or Servants, Person or Persons as aforesaid, or of the Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, or any Increase of the Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, to be paid to them or any of them, shall not be valid and effectual, unless such Appointment or Appointments shall be made at a Meeting to be held pursuant to Notice for that Purpose, at which Twelve or more of the said Trustees shall be present.

Appointments not valid, unless made at a Meeting of 12 Trustees.

VI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That any Appointment or Appointments of any Officer or Officers, Person or Persons as aforesaid, or of the Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, or any Increase of the Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, to be paid to them or any of them, made by the said Trustees at any Meeting to be held for that Purpose, at which Twelve or more Trustees shall be present, shall not be valid and effectual, unless a Return in Writing of such Appointment or Appointments, Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, or Increase of Salary or Salaries, Allowance or Allowances, as aforesaid, signed by the major Part or Number of the said Trustees present at such Meeting, shall be laid before the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and Privy Council in Ireland, for the Time being, by delivering the same at the Office of the Clerk of the Privy Council Thirty one Days at the least before such Appointment or Appointments shall be intended to take Effect; and if the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors and Privy Council shall, within the said Thirty one Days, signify to the said Trustees in Writing their Disapprobation of such Appointment or Appointments respectively, or any of them, such Appointment or Appointments so objected to shall be of no Force or Effect.

Each Appointment of Officers not valid, without Approbation of Lord Lieutenant.

VII. This is to say, the Number of Inches not occupied or wetted by the Wort, being the Space between the proper Dipping Place of such Back, and the Surface of the Wort therein; and no Bab, Yeast or other Matter or Thing capable of causing Fermentation, shall be added to or mixed with the Wort, nor shall any Alteration whatsoever be made in the Quantity or Gravity of such Wort for the Space of Two Hours next after such Wort shall have been collected in such Fermenting Back, and after such Declaration shall have been given thereof as aforesaid, unless the proper Officer shall within such Two Hours have taken an Account of the Quantity and Gravity of such Wort; and if any Wort shall be conveyed into and collected in any Fermenting Back, in any other Manner than as is herein directed, or if such Declaration shall not be given as herein required, or if any untrue Declaration shall be given of the Quantity or Gravity of any such Wort, or if any such Yeast or other Matter or Thing shall be so added to or mixed with any Wort contrary thereto, then and in such and every such Case the Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

And he it further enacted, That if at any Time after any Officer of Excise shall have taken an Account of and ascertained the Gravity or Quantity of any Wort or Wash in any Fermenting Back in the Stillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, any Wort shall be found in such Back, or if any Wash in Process of Fermentation shall be found in such Back, which shall exceed in Gravity the Wort or Wash in such Fermenting Back of which such Account had been taken, or which shall exceed in Quantity, by Five per Centum or more, the Wort or Wash in such Fermenting Back of which such Account had been previously taken, all such Wort or Wash in such Fermenting Back shall be considered as new Wort or Wash, and not included in any former Charge against such Distiller; and such Distiller shall be charged with Duty in respect of the whole Wort or Wash in such Back or Vessel, in like Manner as such Distiller is by this Act chargeable in respect of any Wort or Wash not before charged; and the Wort or Wash of which such Account had been previously taken in such Fermenting Back shall be deemed to be distilled or decreased, and the Distiller shall be charged for a Quantity of Spirits in respect of such Wort or Wash so deemed to be distilled or decreased, in like Manner as such Distiller is chargeable under this Act for any Wort or Wash actually distilled or decreased; and such Distiller shall also, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

L. And he it further enacted, That every Distiller who shall intend to make or prepare the Composition called Bab, or any other Composition for inducing or increasing the Fermentation of any Wort or Wash, shall from time to time, at least Six Hours previous to the beginning to make or prepare any such Composition, give or cause to be given a Notice in Writing to the proper Officer in charge of the Stillery of such Distiller, specifying the Time when, and the particular Vessel or Vessels in which such Composition is to be made or prepared, and the particular Wash Fermenting Back into which the same is to be put, and also specifying the Quantity of such Composition, which Quantity shall not exceed the Proportion of Five Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of the Wort or Wash in which such Composition is to be added; and it shall not be lawful for any Distiller to have or use on any Time any such Composition of greater Gravity than the Gravity of the Wort which such Distiller shall at such Time be authorized to use under the Provisions of this Act; and if any such Composition shall be made or prepared in the Stillery of any Distiller contrary to the Directions herebefore prescribed, or if the Gravity of any such Composition shall be increased at any Time after the Officer shall have taken an Account thereof, or if the whole Quantity of such Composition shall not be conveyed into the particular Fermenting Wash Back specified in such Notice within Twenty four Hours after the Time specified in such Notice for making such Composition, then and in every such Case the Distiller in whose Stillery any such Offence or Default shall be committed or made shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LI. And he it further enacted, That when the whole Wort or Wash brewed or made in any Stillery during any Brewing Period shall be collected into the Fermenting Wash Backs in such Stillery, and before the Commencement of any Distilling Period, in the Stillery of such Distiller, and before any Still shall be made use of in such Stillery for the distilling of such Wort or Wash, a Declaration in Writing, by or on behalf of such Distiller, shall be delivered to the proper Officer, that the whole Wort and Wash in the Stillery of such Distiller is collected into the Fermenting Wash Backs in such Stillery; and thenceupon it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of such Stillery, at any Time not being less than Twelve Hours subsequent to the Delivery of such Declaration, and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to open any Still or Stills in such Stillery, by removing such Fastenings as prevent such Still or Stills from being used; and if any Still in the Stillery of any Distiller shall be made use of before such Declaration shall have been delivered as aforesaid, or if all the Wort and Wash in any such Stillery shall not be collected as stated in such Declaration, then and in every such Case such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LII. And he it further enacted, That Eight Hours before any Wash shall be conveyed from any Fermenting Wash Back in the Stillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, a Notice in Writing shall be given to the proper Officer, by or on behalf of such Distiller, in which shall be stated the Num-

LIV. And be it further enacted, That Four Hours at least before any Low Wines or Points or Spirits respectively shall be removed out of any of the respective Receivers of Low Wines or Points or Spirits in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, a Notice in Writing, specifying the Day and Hour when such Low Wines or Points or Spirits respectively are to be removed out of such Receivers respectively, shall be given to the proper Officer by or in Behalf of such Distiller; and such Officer shall attend at the Time specified in such Notice; and after having taken an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Low Wines or Spirits or Points respectively, as the Case may be, such Officer shall remove the Fastenings of the Receivers containing such Low Wines or Spirits or Points respectively, and forthwith and without Delay all the Low Wines or Points which shall be in such Low Wines or Points Receiver or Receivers shall be removed and conveyed into the Low Wines Charger or such Part thereof as such Charger shall be capable of containing, and all the Spirits which shall be contained in such Spirit Receiver shall be removed and conveyed into the matured Spirit Store of such Distiller; and if any Low Wines or Spirits or Points respectively shall be removed from any Receiver without such Notice, or at any other Time than shall have been specified in such Notice, or before the Officer shall have removed the Fastenings of such Receiver as herein directed; or if after such Officer shall have taken account of the Quantity and Strength of the Low Wines or Points or Spirits respectively in any such Receiver, any other Low Wines or Points or Spirits shall be conveyed into any such Receiver until the Whole of the Low Wines or Points or Spirits of which such Account shall have been taken shall have been removed or conveyed from such Receiver, and the Fastenings thereof shall have been again secured by such Officer, then in such and every such Case the Distiller in whose Distillery such Offence shall be committed shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

LV. And be it further enacted, That all the Low Wines produced by the Distillation of the Wash contained in each Fermenting Back, in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, shall be collected and kept in the Low Wines Receiver or Receivers, separate and apart from and unmixed with any Low Wines produced by the Distillation of any Wash contained in any other Fermenting Back, or with any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Low Wines so separately collected shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and all the Spirits and Points produced by the Redistillation of such Low Wines shall in like Manner be collected in the Spirits and Points Receivers respectively, and kept thereto separated apart from and unmixed with any other Matter or Thing (save as is hereinafter provided), until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Spirits and Points respectively shall have been taken by the proper Officer; and if the whole Quantity of Low Wines which shall be produced by the Distillation of all the Wash contained in each Fermenting Back in the Distillery of any such Distiller shall not be collected in the Low Wines Receiver or Receivers, separate and apart and unmixed as aforesaid, or if all such Low Wines so collected shall not remain and be kept in such Receiver or Receivers until an Account of the Quantity and Strength of such Low Wines shall have been taken thereon by the proper Officer, or if all the Spirits and Points respectively produced by the Redistillation of such Low Wines shall not be so collected and kept separate as aforesaid (except as herein provided) until an Account of the Strength and Quantity of such Spirits and Points respectively shall have been taken by such Officer as aforesaid, then in every such Case every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to mix with any such Spirits and Points respectively so collected as such Receiver or Receivers any Spirits or any Points respectively, which may have been produced from the Points, if any, which shall have remained as aforesaid after any previous Distillation.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That for and in respect of every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash which shall be brewed or made in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, the Officer of Excise shall charge such Distiller with Duty for a Quantity of Spirits at the Rate of One Gallon of Proof Spirits for every Five Degrees of Gravity of such Wort or Wash which shall be aforesaid; that it is to pay, for every Five Degrees of Difference between the original Gravity of such Wort or Wash, as declared by such Distiller pursuant to this Act, or as appearing on the first Account taken thereof in the Fermenting Back or Wort Receiver, and the decreased Gravity of such Wort or Wash, as appearing on the last Account thereof taken by the Officer previous to the Distillation thereof; and the Officer shall also charge at the same Rate and Proportion of Spirits for any lesser Quantity of such Wort or Wash, and for any such Difference of Gravity which shall be less than Five Degrees.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Officer of Excise shall take an Account of the Quantity and Strength of the Low Wines or Spirits of the first Distillation which shall have been produced from the Distillation of the Wash contained in any Fermenting Back in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, such Officer shall compute and ascertain the Quantity of Proof Spirits equivalent to such Low Wines, according to the Strength of such Low Wines or Spirits, of the first Distillation as compared with Proof Spirits, and such Quantity of Proof Spirits shall be deemed and taken to have been distilled or produced from the Wash contained in such Back, and the Officer shall charge the Distiller with Duty on the Quantity of Proof Spirits so ascertained, after making an Allowance of Five per Centum on such Quantity.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Officer of Excise shall take an Account of the Quantity and Strength of Spirits and Feints respectively which shall have been produced from the whole of the Low Wines distilled from the Wash contained in any Fermenting Back, together with any Feints which may have remained from any previous Redistillation in the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, such Officer shall compute and ascertain the Quantity of Proof Spirits equivalent to such Spirits and Feints respectively, according to the Strength of such Spirits and Feints as compared with Proof Spirits, and shall deduct from the Quantity of Proof Spirits so ascertained a Quantity of Proof Spirits, computed and ascertained as aforesaid, equivalent to the Quantity of Feints, if any, which may have remained on hand after any such previous Redistillation, and which may have been included in the Account of Spirits and Feints so taken as aforesaid; and after such Deduction the remaining Quantity of Proof Spirits as computed and ascertained shall be deemed and taken to have been distilled and produced from the Low Wines distilled from the Wash contained in such Fermenting Back, and the Officer shall charge the Distiller with Duty upon such last mentioned Quantity of Proof Spirits.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall, in respect of all Wort and Wash in the Distillery of such Distiller, be charged according to the highest Gauge of Quantity which shall at any Time be taken thereof, and according to the highest Assay of Gravity thereof at any Time ascertained by any Officer of Excise, without any Allowance for Waste, Huh, Dregs, Yeast or other Matter whatsoever: and when any Decrease shall take place in the Quantity of Wort and Wash in the Distillery of any Distiller, the Amount of such Decrease shall be deemed and taken to have been distilled by such Distiller, and such Distiller shall be charged with a Quantity of Spirits in proportion to the Decrease of any such Wort or Wash, according to the Directions of this Act.

LX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Quantity of Spirits which shall be actually distilled or produced, or which under any of the Provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be distilled or produced from any Wort or Wash contained in any Fermenting Back, shall exceed the Rate of One Gallon and One Nth Part of a Gallon of Proof Spirits from each and every One hundred Gallons of such Wort or Wash, for and in respect of every Five Degrees of Gravity of such Wort or Wash which shall be ascertained; that is to say, for every Five Degrees of Difference between the original Gravity of such Wort or Wash, as declared by such Distiller pursuant to this Act, or as appearing on the First Account taken thereof in the Fermenting Back, and the decreased Gravity of such Wort or Wash, as appearing by the last Account thereof, taken by the Officer previous to the Distillation thereof, then and in every such Case the Officer shall keep a distinct Account of every such excess Quantity, and shall set forth the same in his Book or Books, and in his Return or Charge against such Distiller under the Head of "Undue Excesses"; and in case the Quantity of Spirits charged upon any Distiller, during the Continuance of the Licence of such Distiller, exclusive of such undue Excesses as aforesaid, shall be less, in respect of every Hundred Gallons of Wash distilled or increased in the Distillery of such Distiller, than after the Rate or in the Proportion of one Gallon of Proof Spirits of every Five Degrees of the Gravity of the Wort which such Distiller shall be authorized to make use of, pursuant to any Notice which shall have been given under this Act, then and in every such Case such Distiller shall be chargeable with the Quantity of Spirits which shall appear so deficient, and the Officer shall, within One Calendar Month next after the Expiration of such Licence, make a Return and charge such Distiller with the Quantity of Spirits which shall appear so deficient: and such Distiller shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to become due and payable within Ten Days next after such Return shall have been made, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Duty so returned and charged.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits of the first Extraction, or which shall be produced by One Distillation of Wash, shall be deemed to be and shall be called Low Wines; and that all Spirits which shall be produced by the Redistillation of Low Wines, or by any other Redistillation, and which shall be covered into or kept in any Feints Receiver, shall be deemed Feints, for the Purposes of this Act.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That the Officer in charge of the Distillery of any Distiller licensed under this Act, or any other Officer of Excise appointed or authorized so to do, shall from time to time, within Six Days after the End of every Distilling Period, make out and deliver to the Collector of Excise, or to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Excise shall appoint to receive the same, a Return or an Account of the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller shall from time to time be chargeable with Duty, and of the Duty payable thereon under this Act, from the Commencement of any Brewing Period to the End of the Distilling Period next following such Brewing Period; and any such Officer shall and may also make out and deliver any such Return or Account from time to time, and at any any Time and on any Period, as shall be directed by the Commissioners of Excise; and every such Officer is hereby required to every such Return or Account to charge such Distiller, and such Officer shall charge such Distiller, according to each of the several Modes of charging prescribed by this Act as shall produce the highest Amount of Duty; and such Officer shall leave a true Copy of every such Return or Account, signed with his Name, and under his Hand, with every such Distiller, or at such Distillery, and the Return or Account of such Officer shall be a Charge on every such Distiller, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return or Account to have become due and payable, within Six Days after such Return or Account shall be made, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Duty so returned and charged; and such Distiller shall not be allowed to controvert or dispute any Return or Charge of Duty made by any Officer, unless such Distiller shall have made and delivered at the Excise Office a true Account of the Quantity of Spirits by him distilled within every such Period, and shall have paid the Duty chargeable on such Quantity of Spirits, and in Default thereof, such Return or Account of the Officer as aforesaid shall be conclusive against such Distiller.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Payment by any Distiller of any Sum of Money less than the Amount of Duty appearing by the Return of the Officer to be payable by such Distiller shall not exempt such Distiller from the Payment of the Difference between the Amount of Duty so appearing by such Return, and the Sum so paid by such Distiller, if such Distiller shall be by Law liable to the Payment of such Difference; and that if such Distiller shall not pay such Difference within Six Days next after such Return of such Officer, such Distiller shall for every such Default forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to double the Difference between the Amount of Duty so returned by such Officer, and the Sum so paid by such Distiller.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the proper Officer of Excise shall keep an Account, by way of Debitor and Creditor, of the Stock of Spirits in the Distillery and Stores of every Distiller licensed under this Act, and shall in such Account credit such Stock with the full Quantity of Spirits computed as Hydrostatic Proof, which shall be from time to time duly conveyed pursuant to this Act into such Stock from the Spirit Receiver in such Distillery, and shall debit such Stock with the full Quantity of Spirits computed as Hydrostatic Proof, which shall be from time to time sent out of such Stock under legal Permit; and if at any Time the Quantity of such Spirits which shall be found in the Stock or Possession of any such Distiller shall be greater than the Quantity of Spirits which by the Stock Account so kept by such Officer ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Distiller, all such excess Quantity of Spirits shall be forfeited and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, and every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for such and every Gallon of such excess Quantity of Spirits; and if at any Time the Quantity of Spirits in the Stock or Possession of any Distiller shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which by the Stock Account kept by such Officer ought to be in the Stock or Possession of such Distiller, every such Distiller, whenever such Deficiency shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits which shall be so deficient: Provided always, that no Distiller shall be liable to such Penalty in any Case where such Decrease shall not exceed Three per Cent, and such Distiller shall prove that such Decrease did not result from any Fraud practised or intended.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officer of Excise to grant any Permit for the Removal of any Spirits from the Stock of any Distiller licensed under this Act, except for such Spirits as shall be sent or delivered into Warehouse pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, unless such Distiller shall produce to such Officer the Receipt of the Collector of Excise for the Duty on such Spirits, nor unless such Distiller shall suffer such Officer to endorse on such Receipt the Quantity of Spirits for which such Permit is required, and the Date of such Permit; and every such Officer is hereby required to make such Endorsement accordingly.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every Distiller or Maker of Spirits in Scotland and Ireland respectively, licensed under this Act, to warehouse any Spirits distilled in the Distillery of such Distiller, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable thereon according to the Provisions of this Act, and under and subject to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Excise or any Two of them shall from time to time direct or order, in any Warehouse provided or approved of by the Commissioners of Excise: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful to so warehouse any Spirits of any Strength other than the respective Strengths of Twenty five per Centum over Proof, or Eleven per Centum over Proof, as denoted by the Hydrometer called Spirit's Hydrometer, and that all such Spirits shall be contained in Casks of not less than One hundred Gallons Content each; and that there be marked on each End of every Cask, in Letters or Figures legibly painted, cut or branded thereon, the Number of Gallons of Spirits contained therein at the Time of the sending of such Spirits out of the Distillery for the Removal thereof to the Warehouse.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Distiller licensed under this Act shall intend to warehouse Spirits, he shall give Two Days Notice in Writing to the Officer or Officers of Excise in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, and also to the Excise Stewardship in charge of such Warehouse, of such his Intention, in which Notice shall be set forth the Mark, Number and Content in Gallons of each Cask which such Distiller intends to warehouse, and the Day and Hour of the Day on which such Distiller intends to commence the Removal of such Spirits out of the Store of such Distiller to the Warehouse: Provided always, that no Removal of any Spirits for such Purpose shall be allowed without a Permit according to Law; and no such Removal shall take place except upon the Day mentioned in such Notice as aforesaid, nor upon any Excise Office Holiday, nor shall commence at any Time of the Day before the Hour of Nine in the Forenoon or after the Hour of Two in the Afternoon.

LXVIII. Pro-

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officer in charge of the Distillery of any Distiller to refuse to grant any Permit or Permits for the Removal from the Stores in such Distillery to the Warehouse of any greater Quantity of Spirits than such Distiller shall have become chargeable with during such Part of the Distilling Period in which such Spirits shall be distilled as shall have elapsed previous to the requiring such Permit.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Officer of Excise to whom any such Notice shall have been given shall attend at the Spirit Stores of every such Distiller or the Tunn mentioned as aforesaid in such Notice; and such Officer shall ascertain the Quantities and Strengths of all such Spirits as shall be sent out of such Stores, and shall compare the Marks and Numbers on the several Casks in which such Spirits shall be contained with the Marks and Numbers described and set forth in the Notice for the warehousing of such Spirits; and every such Officer shall continue in such Stores until the whole of the Spirits, of which such Notice shall be given, shall be removed out of the Stores of such Distiller, under Permit as aforesaid, and immediately after the Removal of such Spirits, such Officer shall take Stock on such Distiller, and set forth in the Stock Book the Decrease occasioned by the Removal of all such Spirits.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That immediately on the Arrival of such Spirits under Permit as aforesaid, at the Warehouse, the proper Officer shall gauge and take an Account of the Contents of every Cask, and the Strength of the Spirits contained therein, and shall enter an Account thereof in a Book to be by him kept for that Purpose; and thereupon the Storekeeper shall receive the same without Delay into the Warehouse, and shall deliver to the Distiller or Person requiring the same for the Use of such Distiller, a Receipt for such Spirits, specifying the Number of the different Casks, with their Gauge, and the Quantity and Strength of the Spirits contained in these, with the Day of the Month and Year when such Spirits were warehoused, and any Mark which may have been put on such Casks by such Distiller, for distinguishing the Spirits to be his Property.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That such Receipt shall be delivered over within a reasonable Time by every such Distiller to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, and such Officer shall immediately give to such Distiller a Copy thereof, signed by such Officer; and upon the Delivery of such Receipt, and not before, it shall be lawful for such Officer to deduct from the Number of Gallons of Spirits with which such Distiller shall then be charged or chargeable with Duty, the Number of Gallons so warehoused, and to return the Charge of Duty against the Distiller to the Collector of Excise for the remaining Number of Gallons, which shall be a Charge against such Distiller accordingly; and every such Officer shall attend to such Return the Storekeeper's Receipt as his Voucher for having made such Deductions as aforesaid.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller warehousing Spirits, or other Proprietor thereof, shall desire to take out the same for Home Consumption, or any Quantity thereof, not being less than the Quantity of Spirits contained in one of the Casks in which such Spirits shall have been warehoused, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller or Proprietor so to do, on paying to the Collector of Excise for the District the full Amount of the Duty of Excise on Spirits payable in respect of such Spirits, for the Quantity which such and every such Cask to be taken out contained at the Time of the same being warehoused; and upon Production of the Collector's Receipt for such Duty to the Storekeeper, it shall be lawful for him to discharge the Cask or Casks mentioned in the Collector's Receipt, and to deliver a Permit for the Consequence of the same to the Distiller or Proprietor thereof, or to such Place as such Distiller or Proprietor shall direct or require.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That as often as any Distiller warehousing Spirits, or any Proprietor of such Spirits so warehoused, shall be desirous of shipping for Exportation any Quantity of such Spirits, such Distiller or Proprietor shall deliver to the Storekeeper, Two Days at least before the Time when he intends to ship such Spirits, a Note in Writing, requiring such Storekeeper to deliver such Casks as such Person may intend to export, specifying the Number of Casks and the Quantity of Spirits intended to be shipped, as set forth in the Receipts which shall have been so given to such Distiller by the Storekeeper, and mentioning the Time when such Distiller or Proprietor proposes to ship such Spirits, and the Name and Destination of the Ship or Vessel, and the Name of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, in which such Spirits are intended to be exported; and it shall be lawful for the Officer attending the Warehouse from which such Spirits are to be taken, before the Delivery thereof from such Warehouse, to mark every Cask of such Spirits with such Mark as the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Two of them, shall direct; and if any Spirits shall, after having been received into the Warehouse, and before their actual Exportation, be altered in Quality, Quantity or Strength, except by Decrease occasioned by Leakage, Waste or Accident, all such Spirits and the Casks containing the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

XXXVII. And Whereas it and by the said recited Act it is amongst other Things provided, that no Trustee or Commissioner shall have any Share or Interest in, or be in any Manner directly or indirectly concerned in any Contract or Bargain for making or repairing, or in any way relating to the Road for which he shall act, or for building or repairing any Toll House or Toll Gate or Weighing Engine thereon, or for supplying any Materials for the Use thereof, nor shall let out for Hire any Wagon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage, or any Horse, Cattle or Team, for the Use of any Turnpike Road for which he shall act as Trustee or Commissioner, nor by himself or by any other Person for or on his Account, directly or indirectly receive any Sum or Sum of Money to his Use or Benefit, out of the Tolls collected on the Road for which he shall act during the Time he shall be acting as a Trustee or Commissioner of such Road; and in and by the said recited Act any Trustee or Commissioner offending in any of the Cases aforesaid is thereby made liable to pay the Penalty of One hundred Pounds: Be it further enacted and declared, That no Person or Persons being a Trustee or Commissioner, or Trustees or Commissioners of any Turnpike Road, shall be liable to and forfeit the said Penalty of One hundred Pounds, or any other Penalty or Forfeiture, for or by reason of his or their being only a Proprietor or Proprietors, or Holder or Holders of any Shares or Shares in any Canal or Railway Company which shall connect with the Trustees or Commissioners of the Road for which such Person or Persons shall act as a Trustee or Commissioner, or Trustees or Commissioners, for the Carriage or Conveyance of any Materials for the Repair of such Road.

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any Rebellion or Insurrection shall have actually broken out in the said Colony, or if in the Judgment of the Governor or Acting Governor thereof for the Time being, there shall be good and sufficient Cause to apprehend that any such Rebellion or Insurrection is about forthwith to break out thereon, then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for such Governor or Acting Governor to promulgate and enforce within the said Colony and its Dependencies any Law or Ordinance which may be necessary for suppressing or preventing any such Rebellion or Insurrection as aforesaid, although every Member of the said Council should dissent from any such Law or Ordinance.

In case of actual or apprehended Rebellion or Insurrection, the Governor to make Laws for suppressing the same

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by any Order to be by Him or Them issued by and with the Advice of His or Their Privy Council, to make and establish any Law or Ordinance which may have been previously laid before and assented from by the whole or the major Part of the said Council, in case such Law or Ordinance shall appear to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be necessary for the better Government of the said Colony and its Dependencies.

His Majesty or Council may establish any Law assented from by the Council.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Governor and Council shall not impose any Tax or Duty upon any Ship or Vessel trading with the said Colony or the Dependencies thereof, or upon any Goods, Wares and Merchandises imported into or exported from the same, nor any other Tax or Duty, except only such Taxes or Duties as it may be necessary to levy for local Purposes; and the Purposes for which every such Tax or Duty may be so imposed, and to or towards which the Amount thereof is to be appropriated and applied, shall be distinctly and particularly stated in the Body of every Law or Ordinance imposing every such Tax or Duty.

No Tax imposed by the Governor and Council, except for local Purposes.

Cap. cxxiv.

An Act for altering the Time for holding General Annual Meetings for Licensing Alehouses within the County of Middlesex, and for authorizing the Justices of the Peace for the said County to remunerate High Constables.

[11th July 1823.]

104. a. 77

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for amending the Laws for regulating the Manner of licensing Alehouses in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and for the more effectually preventing Disorders therein, it was enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, all General Annual Meetings of the Justices or Magistrates, for the Purpose of granting Licences to sell Ale, Beer and other cycible Liquors by Retail, as well in Cities and Towns Corporate as in all other Places within that Part of the United Kingdom called England, should be held in the Month of September in each and every Year, any local Customs or Usages to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; but by a subsequent Clause of the said Act it was declared, that nothing therein contained should extend, or be construed to extend, to alter the Time or Times of granting Licences for keeping Common Inns or Alehouses in the City of London; And whereas many of the Magistrates acting in and for the several Divisions of the County of Middlesex, being usually absent in the Month of September from their Residences in the said County, and therefore not able to attend such General Annual Meetings for licensing Alehouses within the said several Divisions, it is desirable that the Time for holding such General Annual Meetings should be altered, so far as relates to the several Divisions of the said County; May it therefore please Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the several Divisions within the County of Middlesex, at their General Licensing Meetings in and for the several Divisions of the said County of Middlesex, which shall be held in the Month of September next after the passing of this Act, to grant Licences (in such Manner as hath heretofore been used) to Persons to keep Common Inns or Alehouses, and to sell Ale and Beer, and other cycible Liquors, within the said several Divisions, from the Tenth Day of October next ensuing until the Fifth Day of April then next ensuing, and not for any longer Term; and it shall also be lawful for the said Justices, at each of their said Meetings in the Month of September next, to appoint not less than Three nor more than Four Days between the Day of such Meeting and the Fifth Day of April then next ensuing (and as nearly as equal Distances from each other as conveniently may be), for the Purpose for which such Special Meetings are directed to be appointed and held by any Act or Acts now in force, instead of appointing not less than Six nor more than Eight such Days for Special Meetings to be holden within the Year then next following, and to hold such Special Meetings accordingly, (by Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding); and every License to be granted, transferred or continued at such General Annual Meetings in September next, or any such Special Meeting to be then appointed, shall be good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, until the said Fifth Day of April next after the granting thereof, subject nevertheless, in all other respects, to the several Laws in force for the better Regulation, Conduct and Management of Common Inns, Alehouses and Victualling Houses.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being, and they are hereby required to receive and take, in respect of all such Licences so to be granted in the Month of September next after the passing of this Act, and to expire on the Fifth Day of April then next ensuing as aforesaid, One Shilling or equal Half-penny only of the Duty and Sum of Money directed to be raised, levied, collected and paid, for and upon all Licences to be taken out by Retailers of Beer, Ale, Cyder, Perry or Spirit, within Great Britain, as and by an Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for regulating the Duties payable for Licences for retailing Beer, Ale, Cyder, Perry or Spirits in Great Britain, and for imposing other Duties in lieu thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said General Annual Licensing Meetings which shall be so held in the Month of September next after the passing of this Act, all General Annual Meetings of the said Justices for the Purpose of granting Licences, to sell Ale and Beer, and other excisable Liquors by Retail, within the said several Divisions of the said County, shall be held in the Month of March in each and every Year; and the first of such Meetings to be holden in the Month of March next after the passing of this Act shall be deemed to be an Annual Meeting within the Meaning of this Act and all former Acts in force relating to such Licences as aforesaid, although the Term of One Year shall not then have elapsed since the last preceding General Annual Meeting to be holden in Aqueduct next as aforesaid; and from and after such next General Annual Licensing Meeting after the passing of this Act as aforesaid, all Licences for keeping any Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House within the said several Divisions, granted at any other Time than in the Month of March yearly, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the same or the like Notices shall be given, and in the same or the like Manner and Form, of the General Annual Meetings to be held pursuant to this Act in the Month of March, as are by the Laws now in force required to be given of the General Annual Licensing Meetings thereby required to be held in the Month of September in every Year.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person to whom any Licence or Authority to keep a Common Inn, Alehouse or Victualling House, and to sell therein Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry or other excisable Liquors by Retail, within the said several Divisions of the said County, shall be granted, transferred or continued after the passing of this Act, shall enter into such Recognizances as are required by the said Act of the Third Year of His present Majesty, and shall also be subject to such and the like Penalties as are imposed by the said Act, or any other Act now in force relating to such Licences or Authorities; and such Recognizances and Licences or Authorities shall be in the Form respectively prescribed by the Schedules to the said Act of the Third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, (except so far as it may be necessary to alter the same for the Purpose of conforming to the Provisions of this Act) and all the other Provisions and Regulations contained in the said Act of the Third Year of His present Majesty, or any other Act or Acts now in force relating to such Licences as aforesaid, shall continue in force and applicable to the granting, transferring or continuing of Licences pursuant to this Act, save and except so far as respects the Time of granting the same, which is hereby altered.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Month of September next ensuing, no Licence or Authority shall be granted to any Person whatsoever by the said Justices to retail Ale, Beer or other excisable Liquors in any House or Place which shall not have been used for such Purpose or Purpose, by virtue of a Licence which shall have been granted at a preceding General Annual Meeting of the said Justices, unless the Person intending to apply for such Licence or Authority shall give Notice in Writing to the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices at such General Meetings Three Calendar Months prior to the General Annual Meeting of the said Justices of the Peace for granting Licences for the Place in which the House shall be situated for which such Licences shall be applied for, and shall affix or cause to be affixed Three Copies of such Notice, written in a fair and legible Hand, on the principal Door, or most conspicuous Part of the House for which such Licence is intended to be applied for, and on the Door of the Church of the Parish in which such House shall be situated, on Three several Days within the Month of November or December, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and of Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, and between each of which Days of affixing such Notices the Space of Seven Days or more shall elapse; which Notice, and the Copies thereof so to be affixed, shall be signed by the Party interested in such House, and intending to make such Application as aforesaid, or his, her or their Agent thereto authorized; and every such Notice shall state and set forth the Situation of the said House in a true and particular Manner, together with the Rate of Building thereof, whence any such House or Building exists or is prescribed, and the Name, Place of Abode and Description of the Party so applying, and also the Name and Place of Abode of the Person proposed to be licensed therein, and every Licence to be granted to sell Ale, Beer or other Liquors by Retail, in such new House or other Place, not having been used for any of the Purposes aforesaid by virtue of a Licence granted the preceding Year, without such previous Notice having been given as aforesaid, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes: Provided nevertheless, that such Notices to be given and published in the Months of November or December as aforesaid, shall be in lieu of and not in addition to the Notices for the like Purpose heretofore required to be given and published in the Months of May or June.

VII. And Whereas the Population of the Parish of Saint PAVRAS in the County of Middlesex, within the said Hundred of GUALTOS, is greatly increased, and now consists of Sixteen five thousand Inhabitants and upwards, and it would tend to the better governing of Disorders in Alehouses, Inns and Victualling Houses within the said Parish of Saint PAVRAS, if the said Parish were created a separate District or Division within the said Hundred and County, for the Purposes of the several Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the granting and transferring of Licences to Persons keeping or dwelling to keep Alehouses, Inns and Victualling Houses, and with respect to Certificates to be given respecting such Persons, and all other Matters appertaining to the granting, transferring and also the

and Baggage Horses, &c. are to be quar-
tered in Ireland.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Horses of Officers and Men belonging to His Majesty's Horse, Dragoons, Artillery or Commissariat, and also all Bat and Baggage Horses belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces, and also the Horses belonging to Staff and Field Officers in His Majesty's Forces when upon actual Service, not exceeding for each Officer the Number for which Forage is or shall be allowed by His Majesty's Regulations, shall and may be quartered and billeted in Ireland in the Inns, Livery Stables, Ale Houses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which Officers and Soldiers are by this Act allowed to be quartered and billeted; and that they shall be received and furnished by the Owners or Occupiers of such Inns, Livery Stables, Ale Houses, Victualling Houses and other Houses in which they are so allowed to be quartered and billeted, with Stables, and also with Hay and Straw for such Horses, at the Rate of Eighteen Pence of Hay and Six Pence of Straw each Horse per Night, in Cases in which Hay and Straw shall not be supplied by Contract for such Horses, such Owners or Occupiers being paid for the same the several Rates that are or shall be established by the Lord Lieutenant or other sufficient Authority from time to time, the same to be regulated by the Average Rate of Contracts for Forage in Ireland.

LXX. And Whereas Inkeepers or others, on whom such Horses as before recited may have been indentured, have heretofore received an Allowance of Four Pence per Week for each such Horse for the Use of the Stable, when the Forage has been furnished by Contract; Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Allowance of Four Pence per Week shall continue to be paid only during the Time when such Horses shall be provided with Hay and Straw by Contract, and not by such Inkeepers or other Owners or Occupiers as aforesaid.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Comptroller or Petty Comptroller in England, Wales and Berwick-upon-Tweed, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses shall travel; and the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Waggon with seven Wheels, or any Cart with Four Horses respectively, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Sixpence for every Mile every Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Waggon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel, and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel, and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel, such further Sum of Four Pence, Three Pence or Two Pence respectively, or such Proportion of those Rates as may be deemed fair and reasonable, to be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats, and specifying in their Order the Average Price thereof at the nearest Market Town, at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like Manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for apprehending them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling, and Nine Pence and Sixpence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any Case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace of such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and one other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall, within Three Days after the making thereof, be transmitted to the Secretary at War; and no such Order shall be valid or effectual unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every Case of any further Sum being allowed as aforesaid for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing the Warrant shall insert, in his own Hand, the Amount of such further Sum for each Description of Carriage, as so authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and the Date of the Order of the said Justices; and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, to his Voucher for the Payment of such further Sum; and no further Sum shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

LXXV. And Whereas in consequence of certain Exemptions from Toll expressly allowed by several Acts of Parliament for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases not so exempted, the Horses and Soldiers, and the Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls: Therefore, for abating such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Soldiers, being in proper Staff or Regimental Uniform, and their Horses, on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and attending thereon, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Widows, Children or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or the Arms, Cloths, Accoutrements, Trunks, Baggage and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Forces on their Marches, or any Ordnance or Bombard, or Commissariat or other Public Stores of or belonging to His Majesty or for the Use of His Majesty's Forces, or returning therefrom, were and are and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act of Parliament already made or hereafter to be made for Passes, Horses or Carriages, or any Baggage of any Troops embarking or disembarking from or upon any Fleet, Wharf, Quay or Landing Place, or passing through Roads or Bridges, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Soldiers, Carriages and Horses are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls thereto authorized to be demanded and taken: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt from the Payment of Tolls any Boats, Barges or other Vessels employed in conveying the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Widows, Children or other XLVII. And Whereas the respective Sums of Money by this Act appointed to be paid to the Constables by the Officers demanding such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or Vessels may not in many Cases be sufficient to answer the Charge and Expence of providing the same, inasmuch that the said Constables may frequently be at great Charges over and above what is received by them of the said Officers, to the great Burthen of the Townships of which they are Constables, or also the Persons providing such Carriages are grossly oppressed: For Remedy whereof, and that the said Overplus Charge may be borne by each County or Riding at the general Charge of such County or Riding, be it further enacted, That the Treasurer or Treasurers of each respective County or Riding shall, without Fee or Reward, pay unto each Constable all and every such reasonable Sums or Sums of Money so by him paid or laid out for such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, and other Vessels, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the Officer requiring such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, out of the public Stock of such County or Riding, according to such Rates, Orders, Rules and Directives as the Justices of the Peace in their Quarter Sessions assembled, within their respective Jurisdictions, shall from time to time during the Continuance of this Act make, direct and appoint (which Orders shall be made without Fee or Reward): regard being always had to the Season of the Year, and the Length and Condition of the Ways by and through which such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels are to travel and pass.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall knowingly, wilfully and designedly make any false Representation of any Particular contained in the Oaths respectively marked (A.) and (B.) and Certificates marked (C.) and (D.) in the Schedule to this Act respectively contained and assented, before the Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Time of his Attendance, for the Purpose of obtaining, and shall obtain any Existing Money or any Bounty for entering into His Majesty's Service, or any other Money, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining Money under false Pretences, within the true Intent and Meaning of an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the more effectual Punishment of Persons who shall obtain or attempt to obtain Possession of Goods or Money by false or untrue Pretences; for preventing Gaming in Public Houses by Journeymen, Labourers, Servants and Apprentices; and the Production of such Certificates, and Proof of the Handwriting of the Justice of the Peace giving such Certificates, shall be sufficient Evidence of each Party having represented the several Particulars contained in the Oath sworn by him, and specified in the Certificate of the Justice, at the Time of his being attended; and that Proof by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses that the Person so prosecuted hath freely and voluntarily declared or acknowledged that at the Time of his Enlistment he belonged to the Militia, or to any Regiment in His Majesty's Service, or to His Majesty's Navy or Marines, shall be deemed and taken as Evidence of the Fact so by him declared or acknowledged, without Production of any Roll or other Document to prove the same.

XIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to exempt any Royal Marine, other Officer or Private Man whatsoever, while on Shore, from being proceeded against by the ordinary Course of Law for Crimes severely punishable.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for the County, Town or Place where any Non-commissioned Officer or Marine shall be quarantined in that Part of Great Britain called England, in case such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine have either Wife or Child or Children, to examine such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine to be quarantined before him, in the Town or Place where such Non-commissioned Officer or Marine shall be quarantined, in order to make Oath of the Place of his last legal Settlement (which Oath the said Justice is hereby empowered to administer); and such Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine as aforesaid is hereby directed to obey such Summons, and to make Oath accordingly; and such Justice is hereby required to take

XIII. And he is further enacted, That the Sums to be paid into the Hands of such Constable or Petty Constable in England, Wales and Towns upon the Coast, shall be according to the following Rates; that is to say, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel; and the Sum of Nine Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Sixpence for every Mile any Wagon with more Wheels, or any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four Pence for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three Pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two Pence for every Mile any Cart or other Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen hundred Weight, shall travel: such further Sum of Four Pence, Three Pence or Two Pence respectively, or such Proportion of these Rates as may be deemed fair and reasonable, to be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District, assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having Regard to the Price of Hay and Cart, and specifying in their Order the Average Price thereof at the nearest Market Town at the Time of fixing such additional Rates: Provided always, that in Cases where the Day's March shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like Manner to the Owners of the said Carriages, for the Excess beyond the said Fifteen Miles, as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrates who granted the Warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided always, that every Order of the Justices assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace, fixing a further Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the customary Rates of One Shilling, and Nine Pence and Sixpence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any Case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District next ensuing the Date of such Order: and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate and One other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty; and so such Order shall be valid or official unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided also, that in every Case of any further Sum being allowed as aforesaid for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or signing such Warrant shall insert in his own Hand the Amount of such further Sum for such Description of Carriage, as so authorized by the Justices at the Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and the Date of the Order of the said Justices; and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as his Voucher for the Payment of such further Sum; and no further Sum shall be demanded, but such as shall be so inserted by the Justice in the Warrant.

XIV. And Whereas in consequence of certain Exceptions from Tolls expressly allowed by several Acts of Parliament for His Majesty's Forces on their March or on Duty, and for the Horses and Carriages attending them, Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases not so exempted the Officers and Marines, and the Carriages and Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels belonging to His Majesty, or employed in his Service, and returning therefrom, may not be charged with the Payment of Tolls: Therefore, for obviating such Doubts, it is hereby enacted and declared, That all His Majesty's Officers and Marines, being in proper Uniform, and their Horses, on Duty or on their March, and all Carriages and Horses belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, and returning therefrom, and also all Boats, Barges and other Vessels belonging to His Majesty, or employed in His Service, when conveying the Officers, Marines, Servants, Women, Children or other Persons of or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, or the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage and other Equipage of or belonging to His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces on their Marches, or returning therefrom, were and are and shall be exempted from Payment of any Duties and Tolls otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act of Parliament already made or hereafter to be made for Persons, Horses, Carriages or Vessels passing Turnpike Roads, Bridges, Rivers, Canals or Locks, unless by such Act it has been or shall be expressly provided that the said Officers, Royal Marines, Carriages, Horses and Vessels are and shall be liable equally with others to the Duties and Tolls therein authorized to be demanded and taken.

XV. And for the better Encouragement of any Persons or Persons to serve or apprehend such Deserters, be it further enacted, That in the Case of every Deserter apprehended in Great Britain or Ireland, the Secretary of the Admiralty, upon receiving from the Justice of the Peace, or other

Rate of Carriage

Officers and Marines, and Carriages employed in His Majesty's Service, exempted from Payment of Tolls

Warrant for sending up the Deserters.

Civil Magistrate by whom the Deserter shall have been committed, a Report stating the Name or Names of the Person or Persons by whom the Deserter was apprehended and accused, which Report such Magistrate is hereby required to give, shall transmit to each Magistrate an Order upon the Paymaster of the Royal Marines for the Payment of the Sum of Twenty Shillings to the Person or Persons so reported by the Magistrate, the Amount of which Reward shall be paid by the said Paymaster and charged against the Pay and Subsistence of every such Deserter, and shall be stopped and retained out of his Pay and Subsistence accordingly; provided always, that such Reward shall only be given in Cases in which the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall be satisfied that such Person or Persons is or are justly entitled to the same according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

LXV. And Whereas it has been judged expedient, for the Prevention of Desertion, to establish Outlying Parties in the Vicinity of the respective Divisions, for the Purpose of intercepting such Men as may struggle or attempt to desert from Head Quarters, and it is in that Encouragement should be given to the Persons composing such Parties to be diligent and active in their Duty in this behalf; Be it therefore enacted, That for and in respect of every Non-commissioned Officer or Private Marine so struggling or attempting to desert, who may be apprehended at a greater Distance than Head Quarters than is allowed by the Articles of War, the Party or Parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a Reward of Ten Shillings, to be paid upon the Delivery up of every such Marine; which Sum of Ten Shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every such Non-commissioned Officer and Private Marine, in like Manner as the Reward or Sum of Twenty Shillings in heretofore directed to be charged against, stopped and retained out of the Pay and Subsistence of every Deserter; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly detain, buy or exchange, or otherwise receive any Arms, Ammunition, Cloaths, Caps or other Furniture belonging to the King, from any Marine or Marine Deserter, or any other Person, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, or any such Articles belonging to any Marine or Marine Deserter, or any generally deemed Regimental Necessaries according to the Customs of the Royal Marine Corps (being provided for the Marine, and paid for by the Deductions out of his Pay), or cause the Colour of such Cloaths to be changed, every such Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; and upon Conviction by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before any One or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said Penalty shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; one Moiety thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Paymaster of the Royal Marine Forces, who shall report the same to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and credit the same in his Public Account; and in Case any such Offender, who shall be so convicted, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whosoever to answer any he made in the Value of the Penalty recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such Case such Justice or Justices of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice or Justices.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Person taking a false Oath, in any Case wherein an Oath is required to be taken or authorized to be administered by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be liable to such Fines and Penalties as by any Laws now in Force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

LXVIII. And Whereas Marines absent on Furlough granted to them by their Commanding Officers are sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unavoidable Casualty from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time limited by such Furlough; and Deaths have arisen whether in such Cases the Extension of a Marine's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and effected for preventing such Marine from being apprehended upon Suspicion of his having deserted? Be it further enacted, That any Inspecting Field Officer, stationed on the Recruiting Service, or any Officer of the Rank of Captain or of superior Rank, or any Adjutant of Local Militia within the District, or in case there be no such Officer or adjutant within a continuous Distance, then any Justice of the Peace may and he is hereby authorized to grant in Writing under his Hand an Extension of Furlough to any Non-commissioned Officer or Marine applying for the same on account of Sickness or other Casualty which shall on due Inquiry appear to render such Extension necessary; and that every such Officer or Justice of the Peace also shall grant to any Non-commissioned Officer or Marine an Extension of Furlough as aforesaid, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of its being so granted, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and the Commandant of the Division in which the said Marine may belong; and that such Non-commissioned Officer or Marine during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted, or of criminally absconding himself from his Division: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed so except any Non-commissioned Officer or Marine, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of this Act, should it thereafter appear that such LXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall in any Part of His Majesty's Dominions directly or indirectly persuade or procure any Marine in the Service of His Majesty, His Heir or Successors, to desert or leave such Service, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall suffer such Punishment by Fine or Imprisonment, or both, as the Court before which the Conviction may take place shall adjudge.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That every Gentleman when any Notice shall have been given that any Person in his Custody for any Offence is a Marine and liable to serve His Majesty on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice, or if there shall not be sufficient Time to give One Month's Notice, then a reasonable Notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commission or Sentence, of the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

And he it further enacted, That if any Chief Constable or other Constable shall not, within One Week after he shall be dismissed from or shall cease to hold and exercise his Office, deliver over all and every Arms and Accoutrements, Horse, Saddle, Bridle, Clothing or Apparatus supplied to him, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, to his Successor in such Office, if such there shall be, and if not, then to such Person and at such Time and Place as shall be directed by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the Time being, upon Certificate of such Officer before any Two or more Magistrates, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or upon his own Confession, every such Offender, in lieu of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds, inflicted by the said recited Act in such Cases, shall be subject and liable to Imprisonment in the Common Goal or House of Correction for any such Period, not exceeding the Term of Three Calendar Months, as such Magistrates shall think proper to direct; and it shall be lawful for said Magistrates, and they are hereby authorized and required to commit every such Offender accordingly.

An Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for making more effectual Regulations for the Election, and for securing the Performance of the Duties of County Treasurers in Ireland. [17th May 1824.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled An Act to make more effectual Regulations for the Election, and to secure the Performance of the Duties of County Treasurers in Ireland, it is amongst other Things enacted, that every Treasurer of any County, County of a City and County of a Town in Ireland, shall be paid and remunerated for all Duties, Services and Expenses of his Office, by an Annual Salary only, according to a certain Amount mentioned in the Schedule marked (A.) in the said Act annexed; and that it shall not be lawful for any Grand Jury, in any Case, to make Provisions of any Sum for any such Treasurer exceeding in the Whole the Amount of such Annual Salary, and that such Sum so presented shall be to full and complete Satisfaction and Remuneration for all Duties and Services to be done and performed, and for all Expenses to be incurred by such Treasurers in the Execution of their several Offices: And Whereas by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled An Act for the more equally raising and better collecting of Public Money in Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, it is among other Things enacted, that all Money that shall be presented to be raised within Counties of Cities or Counties of Towns, shall be collected by the respective Treasurers of such Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, or by Persons empowered by them respectively, and for whom they shall be respectively answerable; and it is also by the said last recited Act further enacted, that such Treasurers respectively shall be allowed Twelve Pence for every Pound which they shall actually collect and account for, in Manner required by the said recited Act; and that the Grand Juries shall, at the Assizes at which such Sums shall be accounted for, present the same, to be levied and paid to such respective Treasurers, for their respective Trouble and Expence in collecting the Sums so accounted for: And Whereas the Amount of the Salary or Allowance, payable under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament to Treasurers of Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, is altogether an inadequate and insufficient Remuneration to such Treasurers who by the said recited Act of the Thirty third Year of King George the Second are required to collect the Grand Jury Cens in Manors and under the Regulations of the said last recited Act; and it is expedient that the said Allowance of Twelve Pence in the Pound, payable under the said last recited Act, should be paid to such Treasurers, in lieu of such Salary or Allowance payable under the said last recited Act: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Treasurers of all Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns, who shall daily collect and account for all Moneys presented to be raised in such Counties of Cities and Counties of Towns respectively, in Manner required by the said last recited Act, shall be allowed Twelve Pence for every Pound which they shall so actually collect
